When you depend on something or someone, you need that person or thing.

If you have a responsibility, there is something you have to do or take care of.

If a pet is frisky, it is very lively and playful.

If you have an affinity for something, you naturally like it.

If something stops you from doing something that most people can do, you have a disability.

When you describe the way that a person or thing stands, sits, or lies down, you tell about that person's or thing's position.

If you are attached to someone or something, you feel very close to that person or thing.

When you help someone or something, you give assistance.
