

VOCABULARY CARDS: A Birthday Mystery

bewildered

evasive

mull

startle

distrust

witness

lock

beneath

When someone tries to avoid answering a question, that person is being evasive.

When you are bewildered, you are confused and unable to understand something.

If someone comes up quietly behind you and surprises you, the person may startle you.

When you think through possible solutions to a problem, or the answer to a question, you mull over the information.

If someone sees an event and can tell about it, that person is a witness.

When someone is not honest with you, you might distrust that person.

If you stand under a tree, you are standing beneath the tree.

A group of hairs that hang together is a lock of hair.